Notes from Our Director

Are you lucky enough to know someone that actually used a Model A as their only source of transportation? I have a couple of friends that have been around long enough to remember growing up with a Model A in the family. My Mother recalled having one as a teenager and was still able to remember using spark, GAV and double clutching.

One friend talks about commuting from Fairburn to work in LaGrange Ga. in a coupe with bad brakes. He said he had to quit driving it after "bumping" people that stopped before he could! He said folks would really get mad about it.

If you know somebody that can talk about the Model A and the "good old days," take time to talk to them while you can. It makes them feel good and who knows, you might learn something! Be safe and enjoy this great driving weather.

- Bob

Fun with Dick and Jane

By Gwyneth Shotwell

“The 3rd (not necessarily annual) Fun with Dick and Jane” tour over the weekend of September 18-20 was once again a delightful mix of congenial company, terrific historical venues and, of course, good food. We numbered around 40 people and 21 Model A’s, and the weather gods knocked themselves out just for us - it was perfect. We were also made up of people from four states, Georgia, Alabama, Florida and S. Carolina, so this tour’s reputation has spread far and wide.

Many of us began out of the Senoia area for a scenic drive to Social Circle and a delicious lunch at the famous Blue Willow Inn. We were met there by several other Model A’s and their drivers, adding to the size of our group. After lunch we headed out towards Washington, with our first stop being the Callaway Plantation. The centerpiece of this open-air museum is a brick 1860’s mansion, but the first structures built were a 1785 log cabin and a 1790 Federal period home. The 1871 one-room schoolhouse was open and airy and made we want to sit at a desk and recite the alphabet! A few visitors played snippets of tunes on the piano, highlighting the great acoustics. And something new to me was the “blackboard paint” on all the walls, complete with white lines for writing and chalk in the trays below.

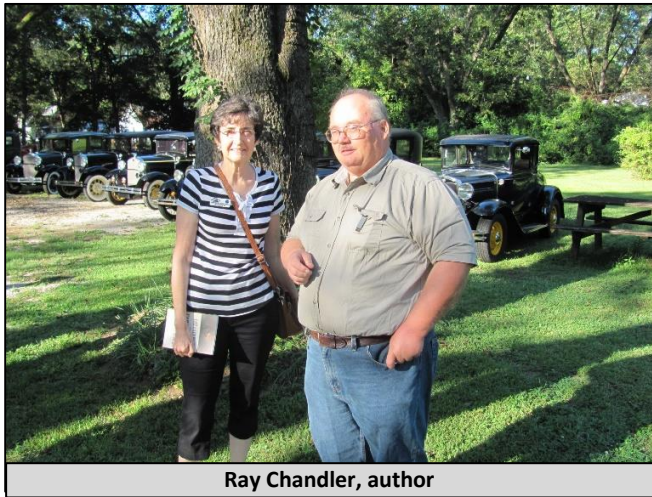

Callaway Plantation

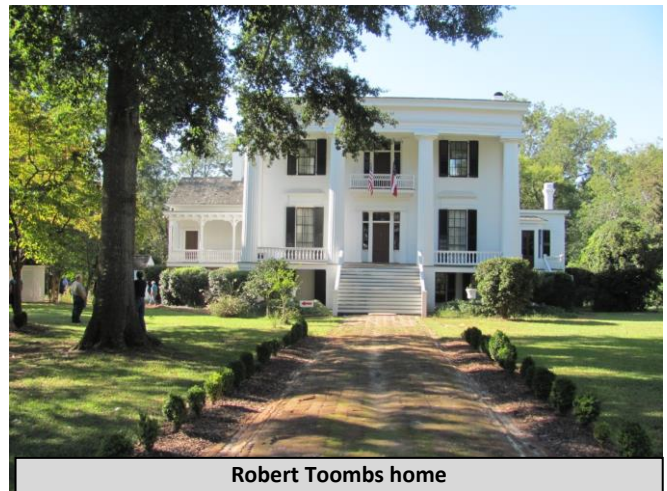

Fitzpatrick Hotel and view over the square

After our visit we headed into Washington proper, and our lodging for the weekend, the historic Fitzpatrick Hotel on the main square. The large rooms and high ceilings definitely harkened back to another era. Dinner was in one of the dining rooms and was a terrific catered buffet. We had the chance for everyone to introduce themselves, further enhancing our enjoyment of what a truly great group it was. In fact, two of the couples have since joined the Southside A's!

Saturday morning we headed out for several stops of interest, the first being the Robert Toombs house, just a couple of blocks from the square. Toombs was an ardent secessionists, although much of his political career had been dedicated to preserving the Union. He served as secretary of state for the Confederacy and after the war continued his service both in the U.S. Congress and also here in Georgia as one of the leading architects of the state's Constitution, developed in 1877. We were met at the Toombs house by local historian, Ray Chandler, author of "The Last Days of the Confederacy in Northeast Georgia," who spent the day with us offering historical insights at the various stops.

Robert Toombs home

The morning continued with visits to the Washington-Wilkes Historical Museum; the site of the Revolutionary War Battle of Kettle Creek; and then the Watson Mill Bridge State Park, home of the longest covered bridge in the state. We had a great lunch at picnic tables reserved for us, next to the South Fork River.

Battle of Kettle Creek Cemetery

Watson Mill Bridge State Park. View from the picnic area.

The afternoon consisted of scenic drives through the postage-stamp size town of Philomath and on to Alexander Stephens State Park. The home of Alexander Stephens, who served as vice-president of the Confederacy, among many other achievements, was a lovely, open and inviting place, and the tour we received was outstanding. Our guide had an obvious love of her subject and all those in attendance were impressed with her presentation.

We arrived back at the hotel at the end of a long day, ready to enjoy the camaraderie of our group at the Jockey Club across the square from the Fitzpatrick. There was much convivial conversation over drinks and sweet teas, followed by a tasty dinner, served at perhaps the longest single table I have had the pleasure to sit at. We were one happy group.

Farewell dinner at the Jockey Club.

The next morning, Sunday, we left at varying times, in varying groups, to head back home. Thanks again to Dick Carne for his continued vision for enjoyable tours, and to Liz Horne, Jackie Johnston and Pat Tyler for all of their individual efforts that brought everything together. We can't wait to see where Dick, Jane and Spot take us next year!

MAFFI'S MODEL A DAY V IS IN THE HISTORY BOOKS!

It was a fun and successful event. We welcomed in new President Loukie Smith and give a big thank you to outgoing President Stan Johnson who without his support, the museum would not have been possible.

All these things do not happen without a lot of hard work by a lot of people. Thank you all for your individual and collective efforts to make it a great event.

International Model "A" Ford Day!

Tom & Liz Romine led a fun tour through our beautiful Georgia countryside on Saturday, Sept. 19th, on their way to lunch at the Barnstormers Grill at the Peach State Airport. There was a great turnout of 15 Model A folks, doing their part in celebrating this wonderful hobby.

Featured Photo of the Month: (As with 2014, we will be featuring photos that glorify the Model A in all its varied styles, and enhanced by beautiful or intriguing settings. Keep track of your favorites throughout the year and we will once again take a tally and announce the winner for "Miss 2015.")

Model A Q&A'S October 2015

by Bentley Bohanan

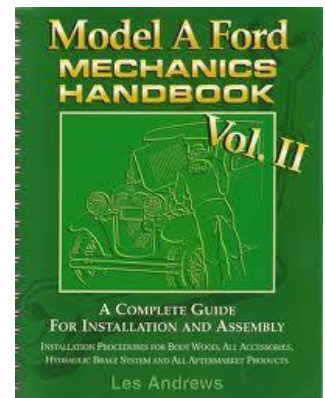

What a great hobby we all enjoy. Just think of it, we keep these Model A's on the road, enjoy driving them on beautiful days. We get to go places we perhaps may never go, always being greeted with a smile and a wave from passersby. It's fun to work on them, learning new things, and making them better. Then if we do it right, we can consider these old cars an investment, maybe earning a little money over the years, much more fun than a bank CD. And the best part of all is how these old cars tend to pull the family together. Rarely can you start one up without someone wanting to go for a ride.

Q: I have a 1931 Deluxe Roadster that was repainted several years ago. The car looks nice, but it does not have pinstripes. Can I use pin striping tape? How will I know what color to use?

A: I would suggest hand-painted pinstripes. If you are in North Georgia, contact me and I will refer a young man who does a great job on all the cars in our shop. Get a copy of the Model A Paint and Finish guide, available at Mike's "A" Ford-able. This has good diagrams of each model and how the pinstripes should look, and what color goes with each paint scheme. Generally you match the colors of the wheels.

Q: I am working on my 1929 Tudor. I would like to install a new top. I see the top kits are available, is this something I can do myself?

A: I believe with a little patience, some basic tools, and a good plan of action, you should be able to handle this. One thing to look out for, if your top is old and has been leaking then the wood will probably need to be replaced. This can be a bigger job than the actual top. I believe the "Les Andrews Model A Mechanics Handbook Vol. II" has some pretty good information about this job.

FASHION FINDS... By Gwyneth Shotwell

The month of October signals all things Fall. And one of the most fun celebrations is Halloween! I wanted to get a feel for Halloween costume styles that were popular in the Model A Era, and found that in general familiar themes are always in fashion. Although you won't find any "transformers" or "Avengers" in this selection, you'll see fun dress-up styles that were sought after for Halloween as well as year-round costume parties. We even feature designer Dolce & Gabbana, and Hollywood star Clara Bow.

The Southside Spy

(Editor's Note: this section reports rumors, sightings and other miscellaneous pertinent data. Factual information is always sought, however, misstatements, distortions and outright fabrications will also be strongly considered).

Actung! The following must be kept quiet, so I'm asking all SSA members to burn this notice after reading, and remain silent until we are able to complete our investigation.

In short, the Southside Spy network was notified of a perplexing circumstance that has required backup operatives to be brought in from MI5 and the CIA to sort out a baffling enigma. It turns out a couple in our midst (no names will be mentioned of course), have hired the same trickster who lengthened his former coupe, trying to pass it off as a prestigious classic (see the July issue). This time, the charade is different. Instead of creating a classic, they tried to pass their new creation off as a one-off double rumble seat roadster, with the purpose of upstaging other members on tours. This of course is a violation of our club's ethics rules that are accompanied by severe penalties levied on both the trickster (who is believed to be a current board member) and the unmentioned car owners. Interviewed by phone (they refused to meet in person) about this aberrant vehicle, Mr. and Mrs. "P," as they call themselves, offered a lame excuse: their orangutan had gotten married and they needed an additional seat for his spouse. The spy network feels this is a dubious fabrication, but is looking into the matter. We're not yet certain who the "P's" are but it seems we were able to capture a hazy image from the security video at a local nightclub where they were seen dancing. If you can identify these people, please contact the spy network immediately.

You are invited to the Ninth Annual Sweet Home Alabama Tour October 15-17, 2015 which will highlight the beauty of Alabama's lakes and hill country. The Tour will be conducted as a hub tour from Guntersville, Alabama and will feature spectacular scenery, county back roads, and local attractions.

Registration will be on Wednesday (12 noon to 5 p.m.), October 14, 2015, followed by a self-guided tour through historic Guntersville or you can just relax at the Hotel. We are planning a campfire get together in the evening. Bring your lawn chairs, musical instruments, blankets, and join us for some tire kicking and meeting new friends in our Model "A" Ford hobby.

We have planned a great 3 day lineup of touring this year. Thursday morning we're off to Guntersville Dam and State park for a tour and lunch. After lunch we will travel to Buck's Pocket State Park and end the day with a "Welcome Fish & Chicken Fry". Friday morning we're off to the Shrine of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Hanceville, Alabama. After Shrine tour we will continue on to Cullman for lunch and tour of the Ave Maria Grotto and then on to Arab's Historic Village. Saturday morning we will saddle up in that "ole" A Model for our tour along Lake Guntersville to Cathedral Cavern. Following the Cavern tour, we're off again to the "Trading Post" for lunch. Our last tour stop of the day will be at the Kate Duncan School in Grant, Alabama built and maintained by the Daughters of the American Revolution ("DAR"). We will end the day with our "Farewell Banquet", with fine dining, music and door prizes.

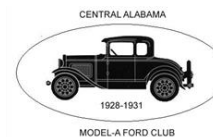

The Hampton Inn, 14451 U.S. Highway 431 South, Guntersville, Alabama 35976 will be our host hotel. The special tour rate for the rooms will be $99.00, plus tax per night (this includes breakfast). The cutoff date for this tour rate is September 16, 2015. When making reservations (256) 582-4176 tell them you are with the Sweet Home Alabama Model "A" Ford Tour to get the special rate. The designated tow vehicle parking area is located at the hotel. The Tour Registration Form is attached.
