Ah, Fall is here....really? Well, it's still good weather for driving our cars. And we did just that on the recent, wonderful, Dick & Jane tour. Photos inside.

Dinner & a Movie at the Huey's resembled Noah's Ark in the beginning, but finally passed over in time for our movie.

Please also see the news about our November Directors' Tour and make your hotel reservations! We have our block until October 7. It's going to be a FUN tour.

Also mark your calendars for our Annual Business Meeting on November 2nd at Frank's at the Old Mill. We will be electing our Board for 2020, and having a good time, as well.

Notes from Our Director

We had a terrific September highlighted by our Not Necessarily Annual Dick and Jane tour hosted by Liz Horne and Dick Carne. I had never visited Columbus even though I was brought up in Georgia. We had a wonderful time and my congratulations to our hosts for another well planned event.

As I write this letter the Millers, Besches, my brother Mike and I are making our way to the MAFCA Canyonlands National Tour in Kanab, Utah. We likely will take eight days to make this trip and are really looking forward to the individual tours planned to some of our National Parks. Please catch up with our progress on our FB page, Southside A's. Our plan is to finish up the National Tour and continue going West to Big Sur, California. Stay tuned for our big adventure.

While I wasn't able to attend, the Huey's put on another memorable dinner and a movie event at their home in Tyrone. Many thanks to them for hosting this annual event.

In November we plan for another great outing with the Directors' Fall Tour to Thomasville, Ga. You will see some details of this trip in this Newsletter. I would encourage you to make your hotel arrangements ASAP. There will be plenty of trailer parking if you would like trailer your car.

See you down the road!

~Jim

Directors' Tour - Thomasville!

November 7-10, 2019

You are invited to join us for an enjoyable tour to South Georgia to the picturesque town of Thomasville, once a wintering destination for those in the north. We will visit the notable Pebble Hill Plantation which was one of the "shooting plantations" providing winter recreation. The grounds are beautiful and extensive, and we will have a picnic lunch after touring the main house and the upstairs art gallery. The gardens and outbuildings are self-guided and well worth your time.

We will also enjoy lunch at the famous Mr. Chick in nearby Cairo, followed by a tour of the owners' truly spectacular private car and memorabilia collection, located behind the restaurant.

Thomasville is a lovely walk-able, charming town featuring shopping, antiquing and a variety of eating (and ice cream!) offerings. You will have free time to explore and relax around our planned activities.

On our tour from Sam's Club heading south, we'll stop for lunch in Butler, Ga, at a local institution - Ms. Betty's Fried Chicken on the square. Continuing on the road we'll make a brief stop in Albany to visit "One of Georgia's Seven Natural Wonders," Radium Springs Gardens. With an interesting history going back to Indian settlements in the area, it became a popular tourist destination in the early 20th century, boasting swimming in the clear springs, a hotel and a casino (no gambling; just entertainment). Bobby Jones even played and exhibition match at the resort's golf course. Today you can see the outlines and remnants of the resort and still watch fish swimming in the clear water.

In Thomasville our hotel is the Hampton Inn at 1950 GA Hwy 122. We have a block of rooms reserved at a rate of $136.10/night, including taxes and fees. Please make your reservations soon, as we have the block until October 7. Trailer parking is available onsite, if needed.

Call: 229-227-0040 and mention "Southside Model A Club."

Further details and registration form will follow shortly.

International Model A Day Tour and Lunch

The solo tour....

Tom and Liz Romine hosted their day tour on September 14th for....two people! Seems the ten or so others who were planning to attend wound up with some type of problem that didn't allow them to go.

Not to be undone, the intrepid tourers drove their designed route to High Falls Park, took some photos (as seen here), and went on to High Falls Restaurant and enjoyed a pleasant meal. Never let it be said that the Romines don't know how to celebrate the Model A!

Next Tech Meet – November 16, 2019

Once again our tech guru, Tom Romine will host a tech meet at his garage in Fayetteville. The session will center around the chassis of Tom's latest project, the Huckster.

Come learn and participate. Here's the usual game plan:

Date: Saturday, November 16

Time: 9:30 AM

Place: Romine Garage, 444 Harp Rd., Fayetteville

RSVP: Tom's cell: 770-527-4039 or email: ModelATom@comcast.net

Georgia National Fair, Perry October 4-6 2019

Invitation from the Georgia Region of MARC, headed by Mark Corley:

Come and join the fun at the Ga National Fair in Perry Oct 4-6, 2019.

This year we will be staying in the Ramada Inn. They tell me it has undergone "A complete renovation." This should be much nicer and this way we all can stay at the same motel. Call 478-202-8065 or 478-987-3313 to make reservations. Mention MARC to get your group rate of $92.00 plus tax.

Call Bobby DeLong at 678-283-0854 to let him know you will be joining us.

Jim Donaldson will be leading the west side group so if you are meeting up with him call him at 678-451-8490.

We all will meet up at Whistle Stop Cafe for a great lunch.

If you have already made reservations and have not called Bobby, please do so. This way we will know how many we will have to make reservations for our dinner and lunch.

HUEY'S DINNER THEATRE! – A GRAND TIME WAS HAD BY ALL!

What a fun evening we had for Dinner & a Movie. The rain gods decided it would be the perfect time for a downpour, complete with dramatic lightning and thunder. It was decided that Charlie Biggs was our Rainmaker, since he looked to be the only person who braved driving his Model A; but the healing waters were extended when the Searocks arrived in their Roadster a little later on. Cheers to both!

Our potluck dinner was anchored by delicious BBQ made exclusively for us by Chef Simpson, and the Huey's lovely home accommodated everyone indoors for dining. We had a good crowd from the club and beyond, with friends of friends, as well as two well-behaved doggies.

Fred and Eddie Harleque did a fine theatre setup in the breezeway between the garage and horse stalls that worked beautifully for viewing our movie, The Rocketeer. We even had "newsreels" that Fred found online of Los Angeles in the 40s, 50s and 60s. What a treat. Mike Shotwell was able to point out the Pantages Theatre on Hollywood Blvd., where he proudly scraped gum from the bottom of the seats, working there as a teenager.

Thanks to the Hueys, Fred and Kathy, for a wonderful evening.

IDLING

If you just can't seem to make your Model A idle properly (ta-puck-a-ta, puck-a-ta, puck-a-ta) like they are famous for, check the following:

1. Are your valves in good condition?
No burned exhausts valves
Compression good?
2. Is the carburetor okay? Has it been checked out?
3. Is the distributor okay? New condenser, etc.?
4. No excess play in the distributor linkage?
5. Do you have Champion 3X spark plugs? Are they fairly new plugs?
6. Is the spark plug gap 0.035" to 0.040"?
7. Look for possible leaks in the intake system like manifold gaskets, cracked intake manifold, faulty windshield wiper hose or fittings.
8. Check for manifold leaks by spraying a very light liquid like WD-40 along the manifold to block gasket while the engine is idling. Does it slow down? If it does your manifold gaskets might be leaking. The gaskets could be improperly installed or the manifold surfaces could be warped.

Our fabulous time on the Dick & Jane tour.....

The Dick & Jane Tour has come to be known for highlighting the history of Georgia and this year did not disappoint. Participants came from all over, including Tennessee and Mississippi. Dick Carne led a contingent from Flash Foods on a beautiful drive, with our first destination being the Zion Episcopal Church in Talbotton, near Columbus, that was built in 1848. This lovely building is a finalist in an historic grant program, needing crucial repairs to its bell tower. Our hosts gave us information about this, and we were able to cast our votes for the project online. We were also treated to refreshments.

Zion Episcopal Church

Our numbers swelled as other folks came from different directions to see the church, and then go about a block away to visit the Ford-Battle Building. It was originally a Ford Agency, and when the original owner died in 1827 his wife took over the business, becoming the first woman in the country to run a Ford dealership.

The original lift is still in place, which took cars to the second floor for service, and is still in working order. A Model A on the lift added to the historic effect.

Car lift at old Ford dealership.

After lunch in Columbus we went to the fabulous National Civil War Naval Museum where we had tours from knowledgeable costumed docents. It was fascinating to learn what an important role Columbus played in the outfitting of ships during the Civil War. The collection of flags from that period is one of the best and most important in the country.

Flag collection – Nat'l Civil War Naval Museum

Friday evening found us at our hotel, the Columbus Marriott, in a brick building that once housed a grist mill. Train tracks run along one of the streets, with a couple of journeys during the night and early morning, adding to the historic feel.

The Sherlock Holmes Dinner Theatre at the hotel served up a nice meal along with a terrific, entertaining murder mystery, complete with audience participation. Several of our group took part, exercising their acting chops and adding to the hilarity of the evening. Walt Smith, Pat Tyler, Steve Rinaldo, Gwyneth Shotwell, Marilyn Corley and Anne Carter did us proud in furthering the mystery story line. A final surprise was the awarding of the “Academy Award” to Gwyneth Shotwell’s portrayal of Mark Zuckerberg (talent, eh?).

Marilyn Corley and Anne Carter – Sherlock Theatre

Gwyneth Shotwell, Oscar winner, with the two stars.

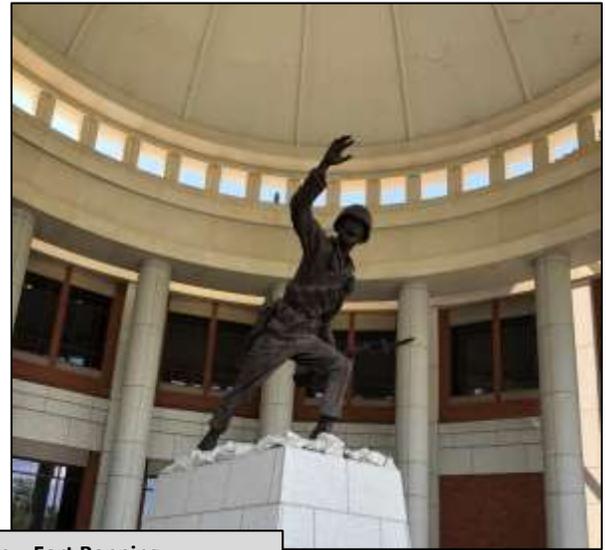

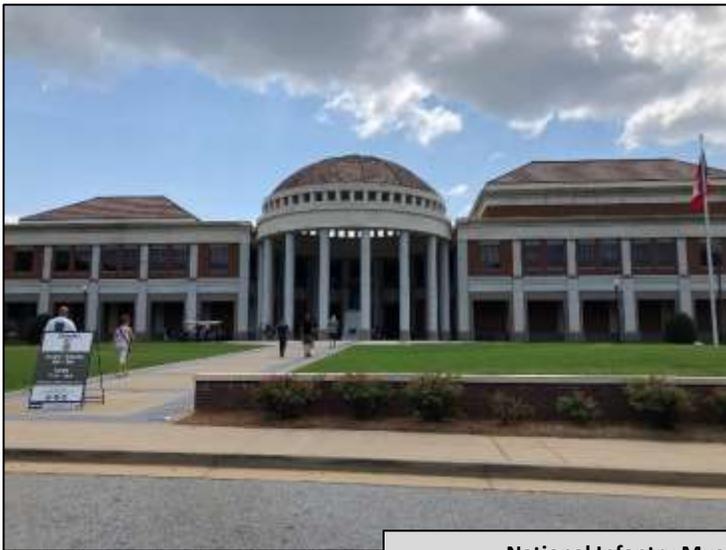

Boot Shop – Historic Westville

Saturday we went to Historic Westville just outside of town. When last we visited Westville it was located in Lumpkin, Georgia. The new location just opened in June after moving 17 structures, preparing new foundations, repairing brick chimneys, and setting up a wonderful 19th century west Georgia town. Several buildings had costumed guides who were very knowledgeable, demonstrating everything from leather work to woodworking to quilt making, and more. It is well worth a trip to see.

National Infantry Museum – Fort Benning

After a Chick-fil-a lunch under the trees we ventured the short distance to the National Infantry Museum at Fort Benning. What an impressive and amazing museum! Dedicated to the infantry, the “last 100 yards” of military operations, the exhibits take you on a close-up journey from the Revolutionary War through 21st century desert warfare. It is a moving and sobering experience that has to give every visitor a renewed sense of gratitude for our armed forces. One visit is not nearly enough time to fully appreciate all the displays; we will definitely plan to return.

Saturday night we had a nice farewell dinner at Broadway Barbeque in downtown Columbus. The building is the old bus station, originally built in the 1930s, and still retains a bus turned into a dining room. It’s perfect for youngsters since you can sit in the driver’s seat and take in all the controls.

So, another Dick & Jane tour is in the books and it was simply wonderful. Thanks to Liz Horne for her splendid efforts in securing all the venues, and Dick Carne for further coordination and driving/leading duties. These things, and many more that go on behind the scenes, made this a smooth, enjoyable adventure.
